

Provisional Announcement for the 14th e-ASIA JRP Call

Special note: This provisional announcement is based on information as of October 29 and may be subject to change. As such, this announcement is on the non-binding basis.

We are pleased to announce that the 14th Call for Proposals under the e-ASIA Joint Research Program (JRP) is scheduled to open in mid-December 2024. The following three research fields are planned for this Call, with expected funders as bellow:

[Health]

Participating Funders

NHMRC (Australia)	PMU-B (Thailand))
BRIN (Indonesia)	NIAID (USA)
AMED (Japan)	MOST (Vietnam)

[Alternative Energy]

Participating Funders

BRIN (Indonesia)	DOST-PCIEERD (Philippines)
JST (Japan)	NRCT (Thailand)
MOST (Myanmar)

[Disaster Risk Reduction and Management]

Participating Funders

BRIN (Indonesia)	DOST-PCIEERD (Philippines)
JST (Japan)	MOST (Vietnam)

We will host a workshop on 25th November to support researchers interested in the upcoming Call for Proposals. This event will provide a networking opportunity for potential applicants, and we will also cover key information about the individual requirements of each funder.

For further information on the call and workshop, please refer to:

<https://www.the-easia.org/jrp/>